

Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement

MERIDIAN GOODS & SUPPLY

Template — fictional sample content. Not for execution.

1. Definition

Confidential Information means non-public information disclosed by either party, whether marked confidential or reasonably understood to be so from the circumstances of disclosure.

2. Obligations

The receiving party shall protect the disclosing party's Confidential Information with no less than reasonable care, and shall limit access to personnel who need it to perform under this agreement.

3. Exclusions

Obligations do not apply to information that is or becomes public without breach, was known before disclosure, is independently developed, or is lawfully received from a third party.

4. Term

Confidentiality obligations survive three years from the date of disclosure. Trade secrets remain protected for as long as they qualify as such under applicable law.

5. Governing law

This template is illustrative sample content for a demo asset library and states no operative governing law.
